

India's growth model commended

83 words

22 September 2006

Global Banking News

English

(c) 2006, Electronic News Publishing. All Rights Reserved.

Nobel laureate and Chairman of the World Bank-supported Commission on Growth and Development, Michael Spence has commended India's GDP growth. He opined that India's growth strategy is 'increasingly successful'. He also added that India and China will become very influential in the years to come. The real challenge for these countries was how their growth rate was going to be maintained.

Editorial queries for this story should be sent to [gbn@enpublishing.co.uk]

Document GLOBAN0020060922e29m0002w

© 2007 Factiva, Inc. All rights reserved.